

Neptune Foundation organises a Charity Polo Match

Neptune Foundation, which is a non-government organisation (NGO) committed to the cause of the girl child and old people, recently organised a Charity Polo Match at Jaipur Polo Grounds, New Delhi.

TT BUREAU

The Charity Polo Match was a grand success. It was attended by renowned personalities from the travel and tourism industry.

According to CP Sharma, president, Neptune Foundation and managing director, Neptune Travco, the players, who played for this noble cause, included industry personalities from various sectors. Also present on this occasion were Shivani Wazir Pasrich, Delhi's

"Through this match, we aimed to raise funds as well as spread awareness about girl child," said Sharma. Meanwhile, the foundation has started helping needy girl children through various educational and welfare institutions. Neptune Foundation was registered under the Societies Registration Act two years back thanks to the major initiative taken by Sharma. Also, it is funded by the contributions of its own members and through charity programmes. "This foundation is an endeavour at making a difference, an effort at bridging the gap and awaking the sensibilities of today's materialistic individuals. It is also our (corporate) responsibility to present a better society. We should not be overwhelmed by our daily business routine, which is monotonous resulting into less productive," said Sharma.

Ferdinand Mautaschl, ambassador of Austria, presenting the Neptune Polo Trophy to the winners. Also seen in the picture is CP Sharma (extreme right)

Sharma sought support from travel and tourism industry for the noble cause. "Donations made to our NGO are exempt under Section 80G of the Income Tax Act," informed Sharma.

“
This foundation is an endeavour at making a difference, an effort at bridging the gap and awaking the sensibilities of today's materialistic individuals top socialites guest: Steven White, deputy ambassador of US Embassy; Shushil Kumar, former chief of naval staff; Ferdinand Mautaschl, ambassador of Austria; Jaime Nualart, ambassador of Mexico and many other dignitaries.
”

The match was followed by a Neptune Cup ceremony and a rally of Vintage Cars.

Launches

Amadeus Ticket Changer launched

Amadeus India has recently introduced a multi-carrier international solution system Amadeus Ticket Changer, which provides customers a flexibility and reactivity to all their itinerary change needs.

Ankur Bhatia,
managing director,
Amadeus India

Ankur Bhatia, managing director, Amadeus India said, "Amadeus Ticket Changer allows all kinds of changes, including date, flight and routing, and processes a vast range of tickets, giving the end-consumer complete control over their itineraries."

The system will not only help individual customers to alter their itinerary, but will also help in making mass amendments. "Tickets for different passengers can be changed at a time in one transaction. Further, with the multi re-issue function, an unlimited number of successive changes can also be made to the ticket before departure," he added.

the network.

Vinay Gupta
Chief Executive Officer, Via

"Our relationship with Galileo has supported us in being a leader in the online space with the highest levels of technological innovation ensuring convenience to our customers."

InterGlobe Technology Givert P Ltd, First India Place, 3rd Floor, Block A, Sushant Lok Phase - 1
M.G. Road, Gurgaon - 122 002, Haryana (India). Tel: +91-124-4295500 Fax: +91-124-4267061

www.galileo.co.in